

Redemption City helps people experiencing homelessness find shelter while providing them comprehensive resources. Redemption City strives to restore dignity by teaching skills that help clients thrive on a permanent basis. Clients are connected to job training, substance abuse services, mental health services, and other community resources

Redemptioncityde.org      (302) 554-3731