OCEAN VIEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH JULY/AUGUST 2021

FROM THE PASTOR: TERRY DOUGHERTY

Beloved in Christ,

As of this writing, for two weeks I have preached to congregation of – well – all of you, mixed with some visitors, that felt, if I dare say it, "normal". "Normal" for size, for variety, for exuberance, for the beautiful essence of congregational life and love. It's been wonderful, and energizing, for me. I hope that was true for you, as well! Our pent-up fears, anxieties and uncertainties gave way before a wave of joy!

Now, of course I am going to devote a bit of this letter to stressing that we must still be mindful of possible variants, or our nature as a resort community, of lapsed vigilance. But there, I'm done; you never saw the castor oil coming, did you?

I expect that all the ways we will recover from the past year and a half of pandemic, economic, and social shock are already at their subterranean and subconscious work. That being true, I expect also that as a society – a uniquely American society – we just might ignore, repress, and eventually forget all the lessons, good and bad, that we should explore and retain instead.

What did it mean to be apart from our loved ones as some of the most consequential events of life – sickness and death, sacrifice and sharing – took place out of sight, took place with strangers just as much as with ourselves?

What did it mean, that very real, persistent, and systemic differences of race and class had lethal implications? That they were the subject of very emotional and sustained public dispute?

What did it mean that public valorization of "essential personnel" and heroes and heroines could turn so quickly to demonization?

What did, and does, it mean that in a time that should have been unifying, we not only remained polarized, but that this polarization grew worse? That we can't even agree on basic reality?

Finally, having learned the pain of being apart; are there lessons for both church and society regarding isolation and tribalism?

Surely there are lots more questions you could advance, as well. I think there are right now, and will continue to be, lessons to learn and internalize. Lessons about what it means to be a nation, a people, a public, a church, a congregation, a Christian. And I hope that we, as a congregation, together will meaningfully engage those questions and lessons, bringing our characteristic love, and welcome, to bear on them.

Certainly open minds and open hearts mean every bit as much to our neighbors and friends as our open doors. Certainly we can be the church, and simultaneously seek how better to be the church. And certainly we can do as we have always done: welcome stranger and friend alike to our fellowship here in this wonderful corner of God's creation!

Friends, let us NOT forget our loneliness or our longing during the pandemic, for loneliness and longing for God, and the good God has for this world and the next, are at the base of being Christians. Let us, in memory, act to relieve loneliness and longing wherever and in whomever we detect them. Let us grow into the fullness of Christ, bearing welcome, joy, acceptance and love to all, and especially to the "least of these". Here's to a joyous Summer of personal and congregational relaxation, rejuvenation and rededication! May every moment of beauty, especially shared beauty, be for a blessing!

In Christ, Pastor Terry

ps: I will be on vacation for the time between July 2nd and July 17th; know that even then you are close in my heart!

SING ALONG

Kathy Rhodes

July 4, 2121

Dust off your singing voices! The July 4th worship service will be a celebration of American music. What better day to celebrate American music but on the birthday of our nation. Be sure to bring a mask for use during the singing of the hymns and responses. We will be singing the first verse of American hymns in which both the text and music were written by Americans.

Come and sing as John Wesley encouraged us

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION SUMMER OFFERINGS...

Bev Bailey

For the past several years, the CE Committee has offered "Ted Talks" on the second Sunday of July and August.

We will be doing this again this year after worship services on July 11 and August 8. After stopping in the breezeway for drinks and cookies, come over to Fellowship Centre to watch a "Ted Talk" together. Afterwards we will discuss what we have heard and how it impacts us as a church community in 2021. If you have a particular "Ted Talk" you would like to recommend, please let CE Chair Bev Bailey know of your idea. Hope to see you for Summer CE..

THANK YOU

This is to thank you who have been and continue to be crucial in my recovery.

When I was in rehab you were preparing our home for my safe return. Home cooked meals were delicious and we didn't think about what to eat for more than two weeks. Prayers, cards, phone calls, and visits were added therapy.

We are grateful for the care we have been given during this difficult time.

VFW Post 7234 "Veterans Relief Fund"

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 7234 has for 75 years supported Veterans, Veterans Causes, and our Local Community. We strive to be a beacon for all Veterans and their Families by providing information, support, and financial assistance whether members or non members. Helping local Veterans when they fall on hard times is very important to all VFWs as our motto states "no one does more for our Veterans". Our VFW has a Veteran Relief Fund. The purpose of the Veteran's Relief Fund is to help Veterans and their families in immediate need of monetary donations with unforeseen expenses or emergencies. Real examples from the past few years include paying for car repairs, assistance covering rent after job loss, paying for food for a family, helping to build a house for a disabled Veteran and Family, helping a homeless Veteran with housing and training for a new job, and paying a utility bill that was about to be shut off due to unforeseen circumstances. We pair the donation with other resources and organizations and mentor these Veterans to get them back on track. Every single penny (100%) donated or raised goes directly to assist a needy Veterans and their family. We have a detailed vetting process and pay their bills directly. Thank You for supporting those who defended our country and God Bless You.

Note: Operation Seas the Day was the intended July mission project, but since OSTD was cancelled for 2020 and 2021, the organizers asked those organizations who would have donated toward the Warrior Beach Week event to redirect those donations to other organizations serving veterans.

Emergency Assistance Service

The Deacons have identified the Emergency Assistance Service (EAS) as the August mission project. Under Delaware Health and Social Services, the Pyle Center located in Frankford has assisted clients in Sussex County since 1975. The emergency service is one of more than twenty services they provide.

They work in partnership with local churches and the Sussex County Ministerium to meet emergency needs of families and individuals. Monetary donations received from OVPC stay in Sussex County. After receiving references from counselors at the center, this program provides resources in an effort to avoid hardships for those in crisis situations: i.e assistance with food, electric bills, fuel, rent, etc. When being notified of the need, the Ministerium pays service providers directly.

We have been given an opportunity to plant a mustard seed and are grateful for your contribution as OVPC continues to care for others in our community.

STOVES: A HOT COMMODITY

Dale Smith

In celebration of the Supporting Our Sisters initiative, we will be sharing real-time updates of the many projects and programs we support in Guatemala. And as summer heats up, there is no better way to start than with the delivery of Fuel-Efficient Stoves!

Just last week, our manufacturing partners of AJPU delivered 30 stoves to Association women in a remote village in the Western Highlands. The location is so remote, in fact, that the AJPU team had to stay there for three days to complete the installations! (The recipient families graciously hosted them, providing meals and lodging.) These 30 families are now cooking their daily meals on new stoves that use less wood, save money, vent smoke outside, and provide heat for the home.

AJPU typically has a quick turnaround time for delivery and installation of their products, but the COVID crisis changed all of that. Travel restrictions and building material shortages caused significant delays last year. Thankfully, everything is now back on track.

To date, about 300 stoves have been delivered to Association members, with another 40 stoves scheduled for delivery in late July. We are grateful to all of the generous donors who made this possible! These stoves are so popular that there is still a waiting list of 60 additional women who have saved up their share of the cost and are waiting for a stove.

If you would like to purchase a stove with one of these women, simply donate online or use this order form. You can learn more about these stoves and our partnership at www.ncpguatemala.com. Thank you for Supporting Our Sisters!

Loading the truck to make the journey into the mountains.

Alfredo teaches the women how to use their new stoves.

SEWING CIRCLE

Amy Peoples

The Sewing Circle of OVPC met Wednesday, June 9, 2021 via Zoom at 1:00 PM. We had hoped to meet in person but because of weather report predicting heavy showers we changed our plans. It was good thing as we had a heavy rain in Ocean View during meeting time.

There were 11 in attendance.

Moderator Elaine opened the meeting at 1:00PM.

Pastor Terry had a lovely reading for us followed by a prayer.

Elaine read a prayer for women.

OVPC Vision statement; Shaped by God, we love and serve.

June Birthdays: Liz Hobler, 6/4, Joni Keller 6/17, Sue Sigvardson, 6/30. Reports

Marti made a motion seconded by Lorie that we accept the minutes of the May 12, 2021 as mailed electronically. Motion carried.

Treasurer's Report

Balance on hand, $ 3580.05 this includes the Sharing Pantry, which has $1,457.72

Marti cancelled the check # 559 to Dreamers Success written 11/24/2020 and un-cashed and rewrote check for $500.00 and included it in with funds of Deacon's May donation to Dreamers.

The treasurer's report was filed for audit.

There was no Circle Mission report at this time.

OVPC Mission Report; Beverly reported that $1835.00 was sent from OVPC for the Syrian / Lebanon project. The money has been put to work already.

Hopefully a Christmas Mission Fair will be held at OVPC, December 5 and 12 after the church service.

Sue Rizer plans on going back to Rwanda in August. She was happy to report that Eugene from Rwanda has graduated from restaurant school and will be in Nashville TN this summer at a conference. He will be learning things he can take back home.

Session will meet June 14, 2021 so no report today.

Sunshine Update, Marie has cards ready to send at end of month.

There was no correspondence.

Special Business

We had the dedication of the Birthday Funds. Last year we gave $300.00 and this year, because we have not been able to meet, we have only $25.00 to send. It is not too late to give your birthday monies to Marti; bring to church or leave at church office. Marti needs to get to PW by end of June. These funds help people all over the world.

Marti read a very meaningful meditation on birthdays.

Least Coin will be collected in the fall.

Unfinished Business

OVPC Sharing Pantry is really being used and running well.

Blessing Bags Mission Project;

Marie reported that it has not been overwhelmingly supported but it a good project. It was felt that when we meet again in the fall, it will be more viable. The Way Home appreciates what has been given. When Marie spoke with Delores at The Way Home she found that at this time of year there are not as many men released from prison. A volunteer at the Way Home and also a volunteer at Selbyville Middle School said that the bags could really be used at the school this summer. We decided the box will remain, for us to drop articles in and the bags will be given to Selbyville Middle School this summer. In the fall we will rethink this project. We thanked Marie for all her work on this project.

June 20, 2021 is deadline for information for OVPC July/August newsletter.

3 cases of water were donated for the work crew on OVPC workday, Saturday, June 5. Earlene donated a cooler and ice. The church is to keep the cooler. The cooler is needed for Father's Day event. Elaine will find where Ray has stored it.

Father's Day Event will be held after church on Sunday, June 20. Elaine Wolf and Bev are working on this. Hopefully it will be an ice cream social.

Sunday, June 13, after the church service, the Christian Education Committee will hold a "Morning at the Beach" on the lawn across the street from church. We will enjoy a time together, fellowship, and food.

Please let Marti know if you need a Bible Study book for next study, "What My Grandmothers Taught Me". She is ordering them now.

Fall Jumble

We had a discussion about having the Fall Jumble. It was decided that we had enough volunteers today to have Marti get permission from Session to have it. It would be either Saturday October 9 or 16 from 8-12 noon. Marti also will have sign-up sheets in church newsletter, church bulletin, and email members so volunteers can sign up in areas where they would like to work.

We will also ask Frankford Presbyterian Church if they will take what is left over. We will not have plants or chicken salad. We will discuss having special crafts in Fellowship Center.

New Business

The OVPC Christmas Dinner is on church schedule for December 3, 2021 at 6PM with the hope that we can have it. We will discuss later, how to give to The Way Home. Also the AARP Choir has not gathered again since COVID so it is doubtful they would sing.

The Nativity Festival Committee is in need of a chairman. It is hoped that you will prayerfully think of how you can serve on this worthwhile project. It was suggested that after the date of the in person Nativity Festival, the video from last year be available.

Please remember that we need new officers for the coming year for the Sewing Circle, They would be installed at the first meeting of 2022. Elaine and Amy agreed to serve an extra year because of the COVID and that year is coming to an end.

Our next Circle meeting will be Wednesday, September 8, 2021, 12 noon hopefully in person.

We closed our meeting at 2:00 PM after joining in the MITZPAH.

CAROLE TRENT

Jen Read

Carole's daughter Kelly sent a great photo of Carole and Barney, all settled in and enjoying a glass of wine on the patio. Carole was so anxious and sad as she prepared to move that it seemed like she'd never feel at home anywhere without Jim. But now that she's in New Jersey with her daughters, her son, and her grandkids, she's already feeling much better.

Her cell number is the same: (302) 249-6880. Her address at Kelly's is 247 Nagle St. Bound Brook, NJ 08805

BLESSING BAGS

Marie Cook Weahler

After a one-month trial period for the new Blessing Bags ministry, the Women's Sewing Circle has decided to continue as is through the summer and revisit discussion in the fall.

These one-gallon bags filled with personal-size items which those at The Way Home referred to on their Facebook page as "Dignity Bags," are given to prisoners in re-entry to the community. If there is an abundance of bags, we will now also share them with our Selbyville Middle School children, some of whom have a parent who is incarcerated.

If you want to participate in this ministry, please place donations into the Blessing Bags bin in Memorial Hall. I purchase all supplies at the Dollar Tree where everything truly is only $1.00.

Please refer to the following list of items and thank you for your generosity.

"Never underestimate the big importance of small things," said Mrs. Elm, the librarian in the novel, The Midnight Library," written by Matt Haig.

List of items for Blessing Bags:

1. Combs
2. Toothpaste, toothbrush, and toothbrush holder
3. Washcloth (As a personal touch, I crochet those that I put in my bags.)
4. Body wash
5. Shampoo
6. A few adhesive bandages
7. Socks
8. Disposable mask
9. Deodorant
10. Hand sanitizer
11. Hand lotion and a couple emery boards
12. Granola bars, peanut butter or cheese crackers, cans of tuna, chicken, or Vienna sausages with pop-top lids
13. Plastic utensils
14. Small packages of tissues
15. A ballpoint pen and small note pad
16. Small bottles of water or juice
17. Scarves/hats/gloves when the weather gets colder
18. Ten-cent reusable bags from local grocery stores into which I place the one-gallon bags. They're easy to carry and won't draw attention to the person carrying them; plus, they can add other items to the bag.

We wanted to find a way to give back to our community this year and this is what we've come up with! It is our first time offering this opportunity, so please be patient with us as we sort out any kinks!

The Let Love Grow Program & Fund is multi layered in order to offer the most we can to our local community. During the 2021 CSA season, Hook Family Farm will be donating one (1) box of produce for each of the 18 weeks of our CSA Program to a recipient. Each week a different recipient will receive the box. The goal here is to get fresh produce into as many homes as we can throughout the season!

The rest of the program is described below:

- Experiencing a hardship and would like to receive a box of produce at no cost? Please fill out the form below, being sure to include as much information as possible in order for us to consider you to be a recipient. Please also include the day of pick you'd like - Wednesday or Sunday.
- Know someone experiencing a hardship and would like to nominate them to receive a box of produce at no cost?

For more information go to: <https://hookfamily.farm>

We might think we are nurturing our garden, but of course it's our garden that is really nurturing us.

SUPPORT FOR REV DR. KOLL

Dale Smith

OVPC has had a long-standing relationship with Rev. Dr. Karla Koll, a PC(USA) Mission Co-worker in Costa Rica.

Back in May, Rev. Dr. Koll visited with us via zoom. It was interesting to hear how her university had adapted to the COVID pandemic, still inspiring many students despite the restrictions. We were pleased to hear that her husband Javier had returned home following his bout with the virus.

Over the past several years, OVPC has provided financial support for Rev. Koll's ministry. This multi-year commitment aligns us with Presbytery objectives of having its member churches sponsor at least one Mission Co-worker. This also aligns us with the Matthew25 Initiative objectives of having missional impact in international areas.

In your donation checks, please annotate "Rev. Koll Mission Ministry" so that the funds can be directed appropriately.

From AARP Bulletin - June 2021

I keep getting antivirus software subscriptions emails from a company I have never done business with. What is going on?

Most likely, it's a business impostor scam that's trying to confuse you. Never respond to any unsolicited emails or text messages saying that your credit card has been changed. Usually, the criminals will include a phone number to call or a link to click on that will lead you to a bogus site. Delete these contacts.

LUNCHES FOR KIDS

TERRY DOUGHERTY

Dear Friends and Family of OVPC; last year, through Pastor Terry's Princeton Seminary grant, we funded a "virtuous circle" mission outreach. OVPC purchased meals from Bethany Diner, which the diner prepared and boxed for delivery to Frankford Library by drivers from OVPC on Wednesdays. At Frankford, the meals were distributed to needy children and families. It was a great success, with as many as 75 meals received on some occasions.

This year, we have committed to at least three Wednesdays of doing the same thing, though the distribution point will be Selbyville Library. The program will start with 50 meals per week, and OVPC so far is committed to three Wednesdays (two have happened, June 23rd and 30th; one is upcoming, July 7th). We will use money from the Pastoral Discretionary Fund as long as it lasts. Please pray for another successful Summer of this vital mission, as we join other organizations to meet this need right in our community!

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

Ray Keeney

Monthly Grounds Maintenance Report

On the June 5th monthly work day we had 6 volunteers show up to help maintain the landscaping around the property. The area along the fence from the Church Office to the back corner of the Columbarium was trimmed again to remove new bamboo growth which continues. Additional weeding was also done along the parking lot side of MH, FC and the Sanctuary. Later in the month two loads of cuttings and weeds (from above) were taken to the recycle center and 3 yards of Mulch were purchased from Stones and spread in front of the Church Office.

The weeds keep growing & we plan on spreading more mulch to keep the weeds down. We also have 3 fence posts to replace along with some fence rails. We have obtained some recycled fence rails to replace some of ours that need to be retired.

Our next Work Day is scheduled for Saturday, July 2.

MARINER'S TUTORING PROGRAM

Jen Read

Educators and students have had a rough 15 months, and it won't get easier when they all go back to the classroom in September. Every school district in the nation is concerned about the impact of so many lost school days on our country's students. It's predicted that some students won't be ready for the next school year, and a few of those might give up. Our help is needed.

Ocean View Presbyterian has already sent almost a dozen volunteers to work with young students at Lord Baltimore beginning in September. Now we would also like to offer help to older students.

Mariners Bethel Methodist Church is starting an after-school tutoring and mentoring program this fall. Students will be bussed over to Mariners beautiful new Hope Center from Selbyville Middle School and Indian River High School where volunteers will help them with homework, work with them on their science projects, help them practice a speech, or give them some tips on college applications. Then Mariners will serve them dinner and take them home.

The folks at Mariners are looking forward to our participation in working with middle- and high-school students on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday afternoons.

Volunteer applications and program descriptions are ready to share, and Mariners has already scheduled their training sessions. The dates are: August 18, from 10 am - 12 noon, and August 25, from 6 pm - 8 pm. If you are interested in helping with this worthwhile program, please save one of those training dates. If you can give one afternoon a week or one afternoon a month, or if you have any questions about the program, please contact Jen Read. Full information and the application are in the office, or call Jen, and she will get one to you. The volunteer coordinator at Mariners is Sue Allenspach. She needs to hear from us asap because they are in the process of assigning and scheduling volunteers. Turn your completed application in to the office, or call Jen to pick yours up.
